CHAMBER AND ISLAND PACKET ENCOURAGE LOCAL SHOPPING

With the holiday shopping season in full swing, the Hilton Head Island-Bluffton Chamber of Commerce in partnership with The Island Packet are encouraging businesses and residents to seek out local retailers first.

According to the National Retail Federation (NRF), sales during this year's holiday shopping season are predicted to be up nearly 4 percent. While that is good, it is less of an increase than usual. An annual survey by Deloitte suggests 4 out of 10 Americans plan to cut back on holiday spending.

"We're glad to partner with The Island Packet to encourage shoppers to buy local this holiday season," said chamber President & CEO Bill Miles.

Another NRF study shows the number of online shoppers continues to grow. In fact, according to the Electronic Retailing Association, shoppers will spend a collective $24.6 billion online this season.

In an effort to remind shoppers to think locally, The Island Packet is designing posters and ads promoting the campaign. "We encourage everyone to support the local businesses in our market year-round but especially during the holiday season," said Sara Johnson-Borton, publisher for The Island Packet.

Posters are being displayed in local retail windows reminding shoppers to support the local economy and tax base by doing their holiday shopping close to home.

For more information about the buy local campaign, supported by the chamber's Small and Minority Business Council, contact Janie Treon at 341-8373 or by email at jtreon@hilton-headisland.org. Posters are available at chamber headquarters, the chamber's Bluffton office and The Island Packet.

Senior Marketing Consultant Jaime Ehrenfeld, Market Manager Ciane Cridland Hubel and Marketing Consultant Steven Spithas cut the ribbon at the new Bluffton offices for Cumulus Broadcasting.

General Manager Richard Furguson cuts the ribbon on the new, 30,000-square-foot Best Buy in Bluffton as nearly 100 new employees and area managers cheer him on. Furguson also celebrated the opening with a $10,000 gift to the Boys and Girls Club.

TASTEFULLY DONE

It was a great kick off to a delicious holiday season. The Hilton Head Island-Bluffton Chamber of Commerce's 18th annual Taste of the Season sold out before the doors opened at The Sea Pines Country Club.

In the award for Best Cuisine, Conroy's edged out Shrimp Michael's for first place. Their award winning, jumbo lump crab cakes were served with dill beurre blanc. Conroy's also offered pan seared quail with crème fraiche.

Shrimp Michael's had several items to sample, serving homemade boursin cheese on pastry with jumbo lump crab, caramelized onions and topped with a champagne cream. They also dished up sauteed red snapper over a spicy crawfish cake finished with a honey chipotle cream and spicy Thai barbecued shrimp over fried green tomatoes.

Other fancy fare included shrimp and grits from The Sea Pines Country Club, and petite "Field and Stream" duet of hand carved coffee rubbed bison tenderloin with fig-vinegar jus and pan seared wild king salmon with spicy tangerine-green onion jam from Long Cove Club.

Restaurants not only served top notch cuisine, they decked the halls. Conroy's and Black Marlin tied for best décor. Marley's placed third.

The silent auction was also a success. A wine country getaway, holiday gift items and dinner gift certificates proved popular items snatched up by winning bidders.

Jumbo lump crab cakes from Conroy's at the Hilton Head Marriot Resort and Spa take top honors with tasters.

The Sea Pines Country Club was stirring up the excitement with sausage and pepper topped shrimp and grits.

Red Fish dished up lobster macaroni & cheese topped with a seared scallop and crispy prosciutto in a citrus butter.

GET READY FOR BUSINESS EXPO

The Hilton Head Island-Bluffton Chamber of Commerce is getting ready for the largest business-to-business networking event in the region. Mark your calendar for January 22 and 23 and get ready for Business EXPO 2008 sponsored by Hilton Head Regional Healthcare.

More than 100 companies will present their products and services during this two-day event at The Westin Hilton Head Island Resort and Spa. Business EXPO is an ideal opportunity to grow existing business relationships and find new suppliers, customers and partners. Participants can visit with clients, make hundreds of contacts, and check out the competition while getting maximum exposure. Last year's EXPO was a huge success with over 100 booths and 2,000 attendees.

There are more opportunities during EXPO After Hours sponsored by Hargray & Palmetto Electric. The networking continues 5:30 – 7 p.m. both days. Admission is $10. Event details and registration forms are available at www.hiltonheadchamber.com. Each participant can reserve an 8' x 10' booth for $535 or an 8' x 8' for $510. Premium booths are an additional $50. The deadline to return forms and payment is December 28, 2007.

EXPO is always a sell-out event, so reserve your booth early. Booth space is assigned on a first come, first served basis, so get your completed forms in early. Participants also get into the spirit of the event by competing for the Best Booth award.

For additional information, call Cathy Havens at (843) 341-8369 or email chavens@hiltonheadisland.org. To advertise in the Business Expo program, call Laura Aguiar at 341-8367 or email laguiaar@hiltonheadisland.org.

PROJECT CONNECT GRANT A TEACHER'S WISH

The Island Packet and the Hilton Head Island-Bluffton Chamber of Commerce are providing a gift guide that makes the grade with area teachers. The newspaper is partnering with the chamber's Business Education Partnership Committee to fill the need for basic classroom supplies.

Each year, teachers reach into their own pocket to purchase basic supplies like scissors, hand sanitizer or book shelves. Project Connect is a program created by the chamber that matches individuals and businesses with area teachers to defray these expenses. This Christmas, why not give a child's teacher the gift he or she really needs and that could benefit your child and the entire class as well?

During the first half of the 2007-08 school year, Project Connect has fulfilled the wish lists of 22 area teachers. Gifts have ranged from batteries to a sound system.

Each Monday, The Island Packet prints wish lists and directions on how to help fulfill the teachers' needs of items or services. For more information, call the chamber at 785-3673, or email jtreon@hiltonheadisland.org.

HILTON HEAD ISLAND "SCORES" NATIONAL MEETING

More than 150 district managers of SCORE "Counselors to America's Small Business" will be meeting on Hilton Head Island this month. SCORE is a nonprofit association dedicated to entrepreneur education and the formation, growth and success of small business nationwide.

"It's a strategic planning session," says Paul Kopelchek, local SCORE member and president of the national chapter. "We're going to discuss what the small business environment looks like for the next year- for the next five years."

SCORE has 42 volunteers in the Hilton Head Island-Bluffton and Beaufort region and more than 10,000 volunteers nationwide who provide free counseling and mentoring for both entrepreneurs and existing small business owners.

Counselors assist people with every phase of their entrepreneurial venture, from forming a business plan and getting a loan, to marketing and managing growth. "If finances are upside-down or you need help marketing your organization," Kopelchek says, "there is a lot we offer."

The local SCORE chapter assists about 250 business owners or entrepreneurs each year. Volunteers run the gamut of expertise, anything from retail to financial planning.

Local SCORE members can meet with entrepreneurs at their place of business, chamber headquarters on Hilton Head Island or the Bluffton office. Advice is free and confidential. To contact the local SCORE chapter, call 785-7107 or email score@hiltonheadisland.org. Another way to access all SCORE has to offer is through www.score.org. There is email counseling, business tools and online seminars.

HILTON HEAD FLIES HIGH WITH DELTA SKY

The departure date has arrived and the Hilton Head region racks up miles of exposure with an editorial feature in Delta Sky magazine. More than 32 pages of editorial are featured in this month's "Portrait: Hilton Head."

Ten million elite business and leisure travelers will be flying Delta this December. Tucked in the seatback pocket in front of them will be interesting details about visiting Hilton Head Island and Bluffton. From the natural beauty of the beaches to challenging fairways to the thriving arts community, readers will get a broad view of all Hilton Head has to offer. Travelers will also see scenic images of our region during in-flight video presentations.

If you are not traveling by air this season, you can find the editorial coverage online through 2008 at www.delta-sky.com.

"Playing the Lowcountry" in the November/December issue of Departures magazine features some of Hilton Head Island's premier golf courses. Departures is a upscale lifestyle magazine for Platinum Card and Centurion members from American Express.

CHAMBER PROFILE DEBBIE STRACENER

Online concierge Debbie Stracener was honored by the Hilton Head Area Hospitality Association with their 2007 Front Line Ambassador Award. Stracener personalizes the website with her outstanding knowledge of the area and her ability to graciously answer numerous visitor questions each day.

Stracener, originally from Indianapolis, IN has lived on Hilton Head Island for more than 10 years and has worked at the chamber for nearly 7 years.

What in your background has prepared you to be an online concierge?

One of my favorite quotes is from a character who says his interests are a mile wide, and a foot deep. An interest in many different areas of inquiry helped me prepare for my role as online concierge.

What kind of knowledge have you been able to glean by talking to prospective visitors?

Visitors often help us see our home in new ways. Recently, visitors saw a small animal on a golf course that they could not identify. With the assistance of Carlos Chacon of the Coastal Discovery Museum, I was able to tell them that the animal they saw was a fox squirrel.

What information do people most commonly ask for?

People often request information about dolphins, beach wheelchairs, typical weather conditions and restaurant recommendations. Another frequently asked question is how to get to Daufuskie Island and what is there to do once you arrive.

What do you love about living and working on Hilton Head Island?

I love living and working in an area that has given careful consideration to preserving the local environment and having easy access to the natural world just outside your door almost anywhere on Hilton Head Island.

Dear Debbie,

I can't believe Hilton Head Island actually has services like these! It has been amazingly helpful to get information fresh of from a person as opposed to just websites. It has also given me a really great impression of Hilton Head already.

Warmest wishes,
Jenn - Online Concierge user
